Counties of State Roll Up Good Majorities for Gillett

Partly Counted Vote of State for Governor.

Cooper defeated Cook by 3000. The Republican State ticket was elected throughout.

The defeat of Cook and Conlon is a most encouraging sign of the change of public sentiment among labor-union supporters here. That the men, notoriously the creatures of Rue, and willing to do his bidding, were beaten when all the power of the boss was exerted to save them, proves that the workmen of San Francisco have been doing some hard thinking since Rue's attempt to grab the office of Public Attorney, and to turn the legal machinery of the city into a farce.

Lawler was most viciously attacked by Rue, because his decisions against grafters. Lawler, unfortunately at the head of his ticket, Morgan, who was the only Ruef judge elected, got in through the personal weakness of Rue, and not through the ticket. With these judges on the bench, the prosecution of the grafters should not be impeded.

BELL HOPES ON.

THINKS NORTH ELECTS HIM.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Theodore Bell, the Democratic nominee for Governor, said last night:

"I think I have been elected Governor by a plurality of at least 7500, or perhaps 10,000. I base this upon the returns that have come in from the north and also the big majority in my favor that are being received from the North at the last moment. I believe that the count tomorrow, or the next day, will be a much more definite complexion on the result of the election."

"I made a clean, fair fight, and expected to win from the outset. Napa, Marin and Sonoma gave me a majority of more than 12,000. This is of great satisfaction to me. I am also agreeably surprised at the loyal support given me by many of the unrepresented northern counties."

LEOPOLD AS "DOVE."

The police are now endeavoring to identify Leonard Leopold, accused of strangling Margaret Leslie, the actress, in her room at the Palace Hotel, as "Mr. Dove," the slayer of the Chauffeur Bate in the automobile murder, which has baffled the shrewdest detectives of the country for three years. The police declare that Margaret Leslie was killed in a manner foreign to everything in criminal annals except the murder of Bate. In furiousness, Jealousy and cuniling the murders were alike. Capt. O'Brien of the detective bureau announced that he has information which, if verified, will prove conclusively that Leopold and "Mr. Dove" are identical.

SPORTING PAGE HERMAN LAYS BATTLE PLAN.

Chicago Fighter to Go After Stomach of Gans.

Alleges He Can Withstand Much Punishment.

Manager McCay Previews to Take Pictures.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—"I am every article in the coming battle and I am confident of defeating Gans in a finish fight," said Kid Herman, today. "I'm going to work on the colored man's stomach, continually, for the reason that he is so much taller than myself that it will give me an excellent opportunity to reach his weak spot and break him down."

"No man ever stepped into the ring with Nelson but who hit the Battler as often as he liked. Anybody can hit Nelson. Then, why did not Gans knock him out?"

"I can stand as much punishment as Nelson, and the fatter the fight goes the better I get. I propose to stand down to 160 pounds a week or so before the fight and then build myself up to 172 at the hour when we weigh in. I figure that under no condition can Gans weigh more than 156."

"Such stories as these are mendacious," said President Murphy. "I have come to the same conclusion. Therefore I have an opportunity to work out my plan of attack and defense. I expect to meet him in a crouch, so that he will not be able to get in a blow. I will be on top of him, just as Herrera handed it out."

Herman favors George Slier for referee.

LARGE SUM INVOLVED.

PICTURE WORK EXPENSIVE.

It will cost almost $1,000 to take the moving pictures of the O'Brien-Burns fight the night of Thanksgiving Day. Manager Tom McCay was drawn upon for the first expense connected with the new feature, last week, and the amount agreed upon is $1,000. The sum will be paid to the Miles Brothers in San Francisco, to cover the deposit demanded as a guarantee for expenses before the picture men would make a move to begin preparations to photograph the big battle.

In addition to the large expense involved in the cost of the miles of film, other material required and duplicate sets of all articles, there will be the expense of developing the pictures, and the large amount of time which will be employed for weeks in preparing for and completing the labor involved in the taking and developing of the pictures.

A large power motor will be one of the requirements in the way of paraphernalia. Then there will be a large number of high power lamps, and any number of wicks to put them in the advantageous position.

Before the picture men would accept the contract, it was expressly stipulated by them that smoking would have to be prohibited in the studio, and no one undertake to produce the pictures. It is probable that Manager McCay will stipulate on the tickets that the purchased is liable to be electrocuted if he fails to do this.

Classified Liners.

Times "Liners." Advertisers—Important. Note change in rate for Sunday classified advertisements. Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1905, the rate for Sunday classified was raised to 1/4 cents per word for words inserted in minimum charge, 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is amply justified by the present Sunday circulation of "The Times," which is the largest per-word rate was established in 1890. The Times' Sunday circulation was only 14,000 copies! The "Liners" for the daily—1 cent per word—will stand as it is at present.

Telephone your want advertisements. Ring up "The Times" any time of day or night, and our prompt and care will be shown in giving you every insertion in the "Daily." 1/4 cents per word in the Sunday edition; minimum charge, 25¢.

"Liners" (classified) advertisements for Sunday insertion received over the counter or by telephone after 11 o'clock Saturday nights will be inserted under heading "Too Late to Classify."

The Times cannot guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors of any kind occurring in telephone want advertisements.

Sunday real estate advertisements to be classified properly, must be sent to The Times office before 10 o'clock Saturday nights. Rate 1/4 cents per word.

AUGUST WACKERBARTH, Secy.

John C. Austin expressed himself as unfavorable to building entirely of reinforced concrete.

Mr. Kremmel explained that they were of reinforced concrete, and had not shown the strength of the crack, and then Mr. Lippincott went on to say that the discussion of the subject was very interesting, and told of the different materials at Tehachapi which make up cement of remarkable tensile strength, and which should greatly reduce the cost of cement on the Coast.

Theodore Eisen, who announced himself as being "anti-concrete to some extent," nevertheless said, concerning the new ordinance: "It looks as though we almost propose to impose as much penalty as possible on any one who wishes to indulge in concrete construction. I don't think I could ever do it, for I could never come to understand the rules and regulations."

John C. Austin expressed himself as unfavorable to building entirely of reinforced concrete.

The little hat dealer danced along in front of the constables, gesticulating like a whirling dervish when they tried to enter the shop, brushing past him.

"DAYLIGHT ROBBERS."

"Oh, Oh, it's a regular robbery," he shrieked. One of the constables brushed him out of the way as though he were a piece of furniture, and each of the two officers picked up an armful of hat blocks and started out.

Rifkind rushed wildly into the street after them, screaming at the top of his voice.

"It's a daylight robbery," he yelled. "The same like which is from San Francisco. I am robbed by a daylight robbery. Oh, Oh, help! A daylight robbery."

It doesn't take much to start something east of Main street. In five seconds a crowd had begun to gather. In three minutes a mob surged around the little hat store.

The constables stood confronting the crowd with their arms full of plunder while the Yiddish hat dealer danced frantically around them howling "Robber, robber."

Gillett's Magnificent Plurality Exceeds That of Last Governor.

Banner for Best Republican Showing in the State Will Stay in Los Angeles—Charlie Bell Has Ben Hahn Beaten for Keeps—Context for Coroner Closest of Them All—Stephens Elected Justice.

PUBLICANISM made a glorious showing in Los Angeles county on Tuesday.

Gillett's plurality, with six precincts to hear from, is 7948. It will probably go above 8000, as in a few strongly Republican city precincts the count had not been completed at 2 o'clock this morning.

In the last previous gubernatorial election Pardee, (Rep.), had a plurality of 6027. Gillett gains 2000.

The total Republican vote in the county has increased from 17,143 to 20,448.

Total vote of the city is 27,059. Gillett's lead in city, 3390. Total vote of county is 46,189.

The Times is able to present complete tabulations of the vote of the whole city and county (save six small country precincts) for Governor and county officers.

The returns show that the contest was exceedingly close between several pairs of candidates. Probably at no previous election was the result so long in doubt in so many cases. Several of the candidates were on the axioms from the time the polls closed Tuesday until late last night, a painful slow down was the cause. A number of those retired without knowing whether or not they were elected.

The results on Superintendent of Schools, in Coroner, on several assemblymen could not be determined until nearly every precinct had been heard from, and it seemed to the candidates an age from the time the count began until it finally closed in a few of the larger precincts yesterday.

Early in the day the election of Charles W. Bell, Non-Partisan candidate for State Senator in the Thirty-Sixth District, was assured.

Henderson and Pierce, candidates for the Assembly in the Seventy-second District, ran neck and neck in the count, and Henderson, who is the Non-Partisan candidate, only led at the close by a small number of votes.

It was the same in the Seventy-third District where John Topham, Non-Partisan, appeared at first to have the lead over J. P. Transue, the Republican candidate. The final tally gave the place to Transue.

Dr. James P. Booth, Non-Partisan candidate for Coroner, led Dr. Lanterman, Republican, in the city of Los Angeles by some 2000 votes, but Lanterman's lead in the country precincts caused this and the Republican is assured.

Similar was the case of Millard, Non-Partisan, and Keppel, Republican, candidates for Superintendent of Schools. Millard led in the city, and Keppel in the country, the latter candidate coming out on top with about fifteen hundred votes to spare.

Albert Lee Stephens, Non-Partisan candidate for County Clerk, and Pease, Non-Partisan, made an excellent run with H. A. Pierce and J. W. Summerfield, Republicans, and came out far in the lead, with Pierce second. Stephens and Pease will occupy the two places on this bench.

The tremendous "straight" Republican vote of the Soldiers' Home defeated Marshall Stimson, Non-Partisan, candidate for Assembly in the Seventy-fourth District. He lacked a little more than two hundred votes of enough to elect.

All the candidates elected on the county ticket were Republicans, although Charles W. Bell, for the State Senate, Henderson, for the Assembly, Ward for Assessor, and Stephens for Township Justice, were on the Non-Partisan ticket.

The final returns emphasized the

BLOCKS HATS, BUT NOT LAW.

But Replevin Was Too Much for Hat Doctor.

Unless some special providence intervenes in the matter of Herr Rifkind's hat blocks, there is nothing for the police force and the law courts but nervous prostration.

Two Yiddish hat dealers looked craftily at him and stroked down his brawny shoulder as he said, regretfully. "My friend, I'm sorry, but I couldn't believe ye: if you did read it to me."

The little hat dealer danced along in front of the constables, gesticulating like a whirling dervish when they tried to enter the shop, brushing past him.

By the time the riot call got in, and whose election over Dr. Booth as Coroner by a fair plurality now is certain. This was the most doubtful fight in Los Angeles county, and it was not safe before 2 o'clock this morning to predict a victory for either candidate.

There was some trepidation on the part of one or two Republican candidates for Superior Judge. Houser and Hutton ran behind other Republicans candidates for the judiciary and it was thought that the former would be beaten by Lewis A. Groff, Non-Partisan candidate, who would defeat one of them, but when the final casting up was done the Republicans were found to be elected.

Harris and Rose, Republican candidates for City Justice, ran behind Chamberlain and Fredericks on the same ticket, and their friends were apprehensive that the Non-Partisans would defeat them. The Non-Partisan candidate, however, led in the election. The Non-Partisan candidate's vote was not quite great enough to defeat Rose, however.

Loucks, Democratic candidate for Coroner, made a large�ade into McLachlan's office, but the Non-Partisan candidate had a plurality of 11,036 in the county.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Board of Public Works yesterday received an offer from Arthur G. Graves to furnish the city with 500 metal boxes for the collection of waste paper, in return for the exclusive right to use such papers. Graves plans to establish a paper factory here.

The Civil Service Commission has announced examinations for candidates for Public Library positions on the 17th inst.

The Board of Public Works on the 16th inst. will sell property on which Ninth-street widening assessments are delinquent.

Lizzie Abraham asks the city to pay her $500 for damages to her property by the grading of Reservoir street.

Children of the late Michael Burk, a mining man, brought suit to recover bonds which he is said to have given to Mrs. Charles R. McEwen and her daughter, Laura McEwen, to show his gratitude for their kindness to him while he was living in their house.

Judge W. Sanford, in Judge Munroe's court yesterday, brought a suit for divorce claiming his wife had married another man, and asks the court to restore to him property which the woman is said to have appropriated. A so-called common-law marriage plays a prominent part.

Attorneys for H. C. Vignes, Mrs. Aurelia Scheck and Dr. Charles Freedman have formed a combination to challenge the grand jury before Judge Trask tomorrow.

C. F. McPherson, who was charged with forgery, in appropriating real estate which had reverted to the State for taxes, was found guilty yesterday.

Miss J. Endleman brought suit yesterday, against William Beatty for breach of promise, asking $10,000 damages.

Joe Riviera was fined in Justice Rose's court, yesterday, for having resisted policemen who were trying to arrest one of his companions.

Mrs. Emma Eaton tried to lodge a complaint with Mr. Harry Kelly, in the City Prosecutor's office, yesterday. The two women have fought each other because their little daughters had been fighting. The matter was taken under advisement.

Three men were sentenced in Judge Austin's court, yesterday, for carrying concealed weapons.

Howard Metcalf, who is accused of molesting his wife who has separated from him, and his children, will be given a jury trial in Justice Chamberlain's court next week.

Francisco Flores, who is charged with stabbing feminine hose, has a prior conviction against him and will be tried for felony in the superior court.

AT THE CITY HALL:

WANTS CITY'S WASTE PAPER.

OFFER OF FIVE HUNDRED METAL BOXES TO GET IT.

Prospective Paper Factory Seeks for Stuff to Use in its Manufactured Products, and Would Furnish Boxes for Exclusive Privilege of Gathering Contents.

At last, the Board of Public Works may find a way out of its troubles over the waste paper problem. The stuff may go to a local paper factory and be chewed up for future use.

A communication was read before the board, yesterday, in which Arthur G. Graves of No. 942 Potter Park asks that he be given exclusive privileges of collecting the waste paper of the city to use in a paper factory which he plans to open.

Graves offers to furnish to the Board of Public Works for use on the streets 500 sheet metal or galvanized iron boxes three feet high, two feet square, standing on short legs, and the box suitably covered and painted in a tasteful manner. These he would have placed at street corners and in the center of blocks, as recommended for all waste papers and such other waste as people usually throw upon the streets.

He also suggests the passage of an ordinance requiring the placing of all waste papers in these boxes and providing a penalty for allowing the accumulations of paper on one's premises.

Graves would have the city's wagons haul the contents of his rubbish boxes to the city dump, where he would overhaul it and take all the material that could be used at a paper factory. This is the point on which the Board of Public Works is likely to hesitate—the extra expense thus entailed would amount to $10,000, and it does not feel justified in making such provision. If Graves gets the exclusive privilege which he desires, it is likely he will have to provide for the collection of the waste papers from the streets instead of gathering them from the city dump.

DOVE OF PEACE.

VISITS POLICE COMMISSION.

Police Commissioner George Mason, who has been absent in the East for the past three weeks, was present at the meeting of the Police Commission last night, and it was believed he intended to witness the harmonies which prevailed. Commissioner Mason, as usual, voted "no" on the granting of the various liquor licenses, but prefaced his votes with the explanation that as he had been absent, he of course did not know what was in regard to the applications, and therefore must vote against them. The other members of the commission chose to remain silent, and the responsibility of overturning Mason, and the applications went through with machine rapidity.

George L. Berger was granted a retail liquor license for No. 130 South Main street. Bloom & Co. got a wholesale license for No. 411 North Main street. The restaurant liquor license for M. A. Goldman was transferred to John V. Vass for the Europa restaurant at No. 322 West Seventh street. A retail liquor license was transferred from Paul Guenter to S. L. Weil for No. 128 North Main street. H. Adams was granted a restaurant liquor license for Hotel Toms, No. 65 Central avenue. The application of Bernhard Kafel for a wholesale liquor license for No. 211 West First street, was held over for one week.

Young & Bender made application for a poolroom permit, those who wished to operate a poolroom in connection with their printing office at No. 218 Franklin street. The application was denied. The commissioners granted a poolroom permit to J. G. Gibson for No. 3514 Central avenue.

E. P. Ealey was made special police-man for the American Olive Company, and L. L. Russell was appointed a special officer for a skating rink. Both men were recommended by Chief Flanner.

Applications for permits to operate employment agencies were received from Mrs. Dr. Munroe, No. 125 East Fourth street; G. T. Thompson, No. 255 South Broadway; Charles Nakamura, No. 646 Wall street, and Mrs. Ida Dale, No. 520 West Eighth street. All were held over for one week.

"More or Less."

The courts may have to determine for the city of Los Angeles just what is meant by the expression "more or less." The city has agreed to furnish the city horses for use on the sprinkling wagons. Their contract reads that the city shall keep employed 100 teams "more or less" during the entire year. With the arrival of the rains, the Board of Public Works has contemplated cutting down the street sprinkling by laying off twenty teams.

Yesterday Ramish appeared before the court and made a protest.

Tony Sanford will tell his story in detail, and even make a statement of the Mrs. Winifred M. Jones the woman in the case claims is a base fabrication.

D. W. Neff and Will D. Gould represent the plainciff, and Schweinfurth & Hutton, the defendant.

About four years ago Mrs. Jones came to Los Angeles, became a lodger, and through his advanced money on small mortgages. She became involved in litigation, and employed Thomas J. Galloway, a attorney.

But her husband, who was then in New York State, and she being afraid that Sanford would interfere with the proceedings, she appealed to the court to restrain the plainciff from doing so.

For Beautified Streets.

Wittner Brothers, who are making extensive improvements on Wittner, Third, Silver, Lucas and Arnold streets have written to the Board of Public Works stating that the cost of the new curb for the beautification of the old curb for a considerable distance, and that the electric and telephone companies have their poles set on the lines of the old curb. They ask that the city remove the new poles on the same lines so as not to interfere with the placing of trees upon the streets which the Wittners are improving.

Civil Service Examinations.

The Civil Service Commission will hold a competitive examination on Saturday, November 17, at the Grand Avenue school, for applicants for advanced school, for applicants for library employees, as follows: Division Grade 1, classes 4 (a) and 4 (b), principals Division L, grade 1, class 5, assistant principals, Division L, grade 1, class 6, general attendants, Division L, grade 2, class 1, library practice.

Asks Damage of City.

Lizzie Abraham asks of the city the sum of $300 as damages caused to her property by the grading of Reservoir Street.

The City Attorney has notified the City Council that as a matter of law the city is liable on the claim, and advises that a commission of appraisers be employed to fix amount of damages.

Ninth Street Delinquents.

The Board of Public Works is advertising for the payment of land which the assessments for the widening of Ninth street at its intersection with Hoover street are delinquent. The value of these delinquents range from $10 to $10 per acre. They will be sold on Friday, November 16, at 10 o'clock, at the City Hall.

Watson G. McCarty has conveyed to the city a strip of land necessary to open an alley in the block bounded by Alvarado, First and Las Vegas streets.

The defendant came here as a refugee from San Francisco and through a casual perusal of the delinquent tax list, hit upon the name of taking possession of certain estate papers which were either dead or out of the way. Then he began a scheme of conveying lands which had reverted to the State because of delinquency taxes.

KELLY IN COURT.

O. E. Kelly will face preliminary examination in Judge Chambers court on November 4. Kelly is the traveling salesman who is accused of getting a lot of silk veiling from a local merchant in paying for what he was buying a bill of goods when in reality he wanted to substitute it for some which had appropriated from his own firm.

Stocking Thief.

Frank Murphy was so anxious for trouble, Monday night, that he finally found quarters in the jail.

He had been thrown out of a rooming house in the wholesale district after wanting to fight everyone in the place.

Then he tried to raise a riot in the street and, being frowned upon by his wife, he took a long knife.

Mrs. Burdette's Musicals.

A bevy of charming women, attired in the loveliest of gowns, and the most sumptuous of hats, attended the brilliant sight yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Robert J. Burdette was hostess at a delightful musical.

The hostess was particularly fair in person, and her room was renowned as the "strong man" of Yale, who had not seen his fiance for a number of years. She has been a great success in the musicals she has been visiting in Idaho. The marriage took place yesterday. Rev. Baker P. Lee officiated. Only the immediate family was present.

ISLAND'S BIRTH IS AUTHENTIC.First Seen by Members of Aleut Indians.Belief That More Will Appear in Group.Three Have Already Appeared Above Sea.*

J. E. Thwaites, formerly in the government employ in Alaska, states that the appearance of the new island is due to the volcanic action of the spring carried over fear to the natives and that for many months they were terrified. In his belief the island is but the forerunner of more and he believes that the United States will in time become the possessor of an archipelago acquired without cost or trouble. This is the third island which has come up. The two others are now rookeries for seal and sea lions. In telling of the first news of the island's appearance, Mr. Thwaites said:

"One day, early in the spring of the present year, a little party of Aleuts paddled into the harbor of Analsak, pulled their baidarkas or skin canoes up onto the beach in front of the A. C. Company's store, and made straight for the office of the company."

"Hello, Ito-ic-wan, Shumai! Shumai!" said the agent, addressing the old chief, "What's the matter?"

The quick eye of the agent had not been slow to observe the unusually dignified manner and serious countenance of the old chief. Besides that he did not yet put the bare figure of ice and treacherous winds to be encountered in the Bering Sea, and he knew that it was an unusual matter that had impelled the old man to risk his life by making the long journey from his village on the western side of the island. More than forty miles had he come in a little, frail skin canoe, along dense floes of ice, amid tides and currents that would cause a hardy seaman to hesitate before venturing out even in a steam schooner.

"It's the same old story," said the trouble, you no kachum plenty flour, no ukola, no chit, no tobacco?"

"Me plenty ukola, me plenty chit, me plenty tobacco," answered the old chief, "Me afraid, my people plenty afraid."

TOLD OF ISLAND'S APPEARANCE.
Then followed a recital of the news of the wonderful upheaval of an island from the bottom of the sea, as witnessed by terrified natives living twenty or thirty miles from the scene.

English, mingled with the guttural language of his tribe, the old chief related thrilling tales of terrific commotion in the waters to the northwest, of vast quantities of steam, smoke, fire, by night; of thunderous noises at intervals, and later of dense clouds of smoke. He told of great numbers of dead fish, birds, seals, and otters that had floated to his island and covered the sea for miles.

"At first the agent was inclined to believe that the old man had become insane, but one of the numerous silversmiths who地震 from time to time; or that, perhaps Mount Makushuk had been active again. A cigarette afterward, then again around the great prison with its 1500 prisoners.

"A bell rang, the dinner bell. I begged to be allowed to have the privilege of dining there. It was a most excellent repast—much better than I could have got in the abominable and extravagantly dear St. Petersburgh restaurants. The St. Petersburgh restaurant daily lists the most horrible extortions in restaurants. There was a large bowl of very good bouillon, with pieces of meat and vegetables in it; there was a plate of small round, yellow seed, prepared in some appetizing way, and there was a huge hunch of black bread. I was hungry, but could not get through with it all.

"After a cigarette afterward, then again around the great prison with its 1500 prisoners.

"A few days later, however, natives from a distant village in the neighborhood of the eruption appeared and told substantially the same tales. Accordingly, under command of S. A. Phillips, and with the assistance of the sheriff, he set out for the island that had floated to his island and covered the sea for miles."

"At first the agent was inclined to believe that the old man had become insane, but one of the numerous silversmiths who地震 from time to time; or that, perhaps Mount Makushuk had been active again. A cigarette afterward, then again around the great prison with its 1500 prisoners.

"Some members of the party believed they were being led on or were hoodwinked in some way in response to the vivid imagination of a few timid natives. Others believed that probably a crater had opened up one of the two small islands. All had been sent out of curiosity to find out just what the trouble was. They found out, at least in part.

RAW CLOUDS OF VAPOR.

"On approaching within a few miles of the island dense clouds of vapor could be seen covering the sea and later large numbers of dead fish and marine animals were observed floating on the water.

"Entering this strange cloud they finally made out the form of the island, and when the sun's rays shone there were three in number where there had been but two before.

"Cautiously approaching to within approximately five miles of the new island they sounded it, and then began to approach any nearer. The entire group was shrouded in a cloud of steam which increased in density immediately and over the island.

"But instead of seeing the island or nature of the island, the party returned home, fully confirming the reports of the poor natives and telling a more wonderful story still.

FIRST ISLAND ROSE IN 1779.

"It is known that in 1779 the first island of the Aleutian group was born from the bottom of the sea. In 1882 the second one made its appearance, almost exactly one mile from the first, deep water intervening. Now appears the third one, almost directly opposite the second. It is known that in these United States of ours may have added to her dominions an archipelago in the Bering Sea without conquest and without price.

"Since the Applegate expedition, the U.S.S. Albatross visited the locality on her way north, but could not get close enough to make a landing.

"In July the United States revenue cutters also paid a visit.

"On the older islands, made estimates of the size and height of the new one and obtained some excellent photographs of it.

"John F. Davis, author, who spent the summer in climbing volcano, the top of which issues volumes of steam. Steam also pours out from numerous fissures all over the island.

"The party planned to descend from 500 to 700 feet, while it is from one-quarter to one-third of a mile in diameter and is nearly round.

"While the material composing it is rapidly cooling and doubtless before long it will take its place with the other two as the breeding place for the multitudes of birds inhabiting the surrounding sea and other rookery for the seal and sea lion."

BANK ACCOUNTS OF CONVICTS.
EACH PRISON WORKER IS PAID FOR HIS LABOR.

After Deducting the Cost of His Maintenance the Balance Goes to the Prisoner and a Part of It is Saved for Him When He Gets Out.

Russia is ruled by documents, written by the St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Daily Mail, not by the Czar or the ministers, but by the little official at 300 rubles a month ($50 and $5) a month, down in the country.

"The law is a saint, but the little official sees the ball rolling, perhaps 200 miles away. He fills up a form; sends it to the minister, and afterward it goes on, and afterward it is a sacred thing; it comes to St. Petersburg, the answer yes or no is attached, and then on its weary course back again. Months before it arrives the agent has forgotten what it was all about.

Long after Port Arthur had fallen there were scores of officials in St. Petersburg engaged in filling up documents about its stores and guns and troops, and not a soul was aware, but the documents had been filled up. In my case, youth I rather thought the income tax people at home were skillful at this game; but they were mere babes in arms in comparison with the Russian officials who loves his work. Arrived in uniform, he stands delightful days in compiling documents.

On the occasion of my visit to the criminal prison, he was present with voluminous prison documents. It had enough, though he was in prison, but to have to go through the torture chamber of furnishing information for these documents must be a little hard to stand.

Once having passed through this documentary chamber of horrors, all was well I was in the prison and everything was human. The uprisers were working in the weaving room or spinning room, or in some small trade in their comfortable cells. They were human beings treated in a human way. Their hair was not cut short; they shaved or not as they liked. They talked freely together; they were not in the least afraid of the Government; they looked healthy and well fed; they were smoking and chatting at their work.

A bell rang, the dinner bell. I begged to be allowed to have the privilege of dining there. It was a most excellent repast—much better than I could have got in the abominable and extravagantly dear St. Petersburgh restaurants. ## PASADENA MEN BUY BIG RANCH.

ALMOST LIKE FEUDAL ESTATE IS THEIR PURCHASE.

Rancho Cienega des los Paicenes in San Benito County Comes Into Their Possession—Retainers Who Have Lived on Place for Generations Are Among Inhabitants.

Office of the Times, No. 28 S. Raymond Ave., PASADENA, Nov. 7.—A deal was closed today whereby A. K. Macomber and H. J. Macomber came into the possession of the Rancho Cienega des los Paicenes in San Benito county. The property comprises more than 16,000 acres and the purchase price is estimated at below $100,000, exclusive of live stock and chattels. The purchase was made through the William R. Staats Company.

The property lies at the very head of the Santa Clara Valley and is but four miles distant from the lines of the Southern Pacific Railroad. About one-half of the ranch is utilized while the remainder contains excellent pasture. There is said to be not a bit of waste land in the entire piece, and, considering the location, the price represents a considerable return.

It is the intention of Macomber to embark in stock raising on a large scale. Already there are some fine cattle on the ranch and choices breeding horses, pure Belgian and Percheron strains, will be imported for breeding purposes. The San Benito River passes through the entire length of the property and furnishes abundant water for all needs. There are more than 500 inches available when the river is at its lowest. In addition to the river there are certain arroyos which run in many places and the irrigation property is therefore well supplied with water.

The buildings on the property are substantial and will be thoroughly repaired and enlarged. The entire property is enclosed by fences. The town of Paicenes is located within the boundaries of the property, which resembles an old fashioned castle with a California ranch. There are many retainers who have lived on the property for generations.

JUST TALKED IT OVER.

The outcome of the election was the chief topic which interested Pasadena today, and the general atmosphere was very quiet and unconcerned. Little knots of people formed at the downtown street corners and discussed the trend which events were taking, but little excitement was shown.

It was about half past nine in the day that all of the city returns were completed and summed up, and for some time there was a difference in opinion concerning the results. The large ballot boxes were sealed, counted, and in some precincts, the average number counted was only about three an hour.

The crowds which gathered on the streets last night to watch the bulletins and listen to the returns was by far the largest ever known on any election in Pasadena. President came in like a lion, and the crowd was in a state of suppressed excitement everywhere. That Gillett would be elected was considered a foregone conclusion, and the whole interest centered around the General election and the New York State gubernatorial contest.

COUNCILMAN RESIGNS.

The regular meeting of the City Council, which was held today, owing to the fact that yesterday it adjourned without adjourning entirely, was continued entirely on routine matters, and with one or two exceptions was devoid of interest. The resignation of Councilman Ashby was handed in and accepted, and the chairmanship of the committee on the City Hall for a Saturday half-holiday through the winter was received and refused.

In his letter of resignation Mr. Ashby stated that his action was prompted by the fact that he has not the necessary time to devote to the work of the city, and that he, therefore, would prefer to stand in the rear position.

Although sorry to lose Mr. Ashby, the members of the Council appreciated his position and voted to accept his resignation. Charles C. Tamm, who had been appointed to succeed him, was chosen to succeed him.

The City Hall employees have gotten accustomed to the Saturday half-holiday which they have been enjoying for several months. They thought they would like to have it continued through the winter. With this idea in view, they applied to the City Council for a Saturday half-holiday, and the Council decided that the city ordinance would not allow such an arrangement, and denied the request. Therefore, the employees will have to work their full time on Saturday, the same as any other day in the week.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB.

The Tuesday Fortnightly Bridge Club was entertained yesterday afternoon by Miss Gladys Gardner of East Los Angeles. The house was artistically adorned with potted plants and pink chrysanthemums and Louis Philippe roses in the drawing-room; rose chrysanthemums in the library, while the den was bright with yellow crepe paper. The prizes were won by Miss Gardner, who secured the most points, and Miss Louise Austin, who had the largest honor score.

Elizabeth Speer and Miss Emily Hibbard were entertained at the home of its host, the wife of the late Dr. James Joseph F. Rhodes, at its recent meet of the home of the late present yesterday were: Mmes. Harry Melton, Joseph F. Rhodes, Frederick Gruber, Mrs. Fred Gruber, Mrs. John W. Cordeira, Stimson, Julia Holmes; Elizabeth Speer, Jessamine Rockwell; Laura Shieff, Jessie Thomas, Daisy Williams, Emily Hibbard, Mrs. Laura Shieff, Anna Dodge, Daniel Duke, Louise Austin, Marguerite Ausman and Miss Dumont.

CROWN CITY GLEAMS.

G. L. Andrews of Marengo avenue has purchased four lots in the Catalina Park tract, F. S. Allard. The stated consideration is $1,000. The lots are among the most highly in Altadena, and the location furnishes one of the best residence sites in the district. It is Mr. Andrews' intention to reside on the park, erecting a residence there in the immediate future.

The annual convention of the Southern California Conference of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which has been in session during the past two days, came to a close this afternoon. A total of 1,000 delegates, from a successful one, and the visiting delegations expressed themselves as being more than satisfied with what had been accomplished in the past two days.

The police have started an active crusade against the contractors who have built lighted structures standing on the streets, largely in the business district. Wadsworth and Bruce Simons fell into the police dragnet today and were brought up in the Police Court to explain how it all about. Both admitted that they had been careless and they were fined.

Each, which they paid. The police are determined to enforce the ordinance, and will continue to make arrests as long as unsighted death-traps are left in the streets.

OFFICIAL RETURNS STOLEN.

Santa Monica Election Results Torn Down Almost as Soon as Posted.

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 7.—In at least three of the Santa Monica precincts the official returns as posted in front of the polling place, were torn down and stolen bodily from the ink was dry on them. This made the gathering of the officials a matter of extreme difficulty, as many judges and clerks who had gone home to rest had to be pulled out of their beds to assist in securing the returns from the tally books.

One of the oddities of the election was the result in the Vicente district. The elector who voted went into the box and carefully folded his ticket without marking a name or any description on it.

LOCAL NOTES.

Mrs. O. Hotchkiss of Nineteenth street, who is well known in Santa Barbara with friends is dangerously ill.

She was taken sick last night and her condition is thought to be critical.

The score for the first half was 10 to 7 in favor of the home team, but the match ended 23 to 21 for Santa Monica.

Cook, Mrs. E. A. Anderson, Mrs. W. Marquard, who won the silver cup at the Los Angeles exhibition recently. There were short addresses by Mr. Cook, Dr. Tamm, Dr. C. Tamm, Mr. Kenward on "Pollination and Cross-Fertilization," and by Prof. A. J. Cook on "The Order Composite."

MONROVIA BRIEFS.

MONROVIA, Nov. 7.—Clarence C. Monrovia left this evening for Clinton, Iowa, where on the 1st inst. he will be married to Miss Hazel Stark, of that city. Miss Stark spent last winter in this city.

A marriage took place this evening when Rev. Clark H. Marsh united Miss Margaret Rodgers and George V. Williams. The wedding took place in the home on West Linwood, already provided by the groom.

The Monrovia Board of Trade is now a member of the federation of boards and chambers of commerce of Southern California. W. H. Evans was selected as the local body as vice-president, representing the Monrovia board in the federated body.

Coroney held an inquest today in the case of Genaro Gomez, who was killed at a shooting at Arcadia by the F. F. Limited. Death by accident was the verdict.

Yesterday's election resulted in the choice for township officers of J. B. Holloway for Justice of the Peace and J. H. Thomas for Constable.

LOS NIETOS REMAINS "DRY."

LOS NIETOS, Nov. 7.—The principal feature of the election here was the big growth of public sentiment in favor of keeping Los Nietos "dry." Up to now, says Los Nietos, had two saloons and as a consequence it was the rendezvous for all sorts of rowdyism.

A fast and interesting game of roller skating was put up to the voters of the town at the Majestic rink last night, was won by the local team which defeated Ocean Park by a score of 2 to 1.

The vote on the election of Justice of the Peace was yesterday's election.
